

Lions celebrate combined charter night

St. Albert's two Lions Clubs got together for what proved to be a most interest-stood and accorded Dr. Cuts a tremendous applause as he accepted it.

Dr. Wm. Cuts is congratulated by John Kaminski, president of the Breakfast Lions Club, on receiving one of the highest awards in Lionsism, the Key of State. The award also carried a wall plaque and the wallet card Dr. Cuts is holding. The presentation was made Friday at the 2 and 20 Lions Charter Night.

ting and entertaining two and 30 Charter night birthday party on Friday at the Club Mocombo. The St. Albert club were marking their 20th anniversary and the Breakfast club their second, and their wives joined them for the celebration.

Lions Lorne Akins and Dr. Wm. Cuts, representing the St. Albert and Breakfast clubs respectively, got the party started by lighting the candles of a huge birthday cake, made by the Lady Lions. But that was not the only honor for either gentleman Friday night.

Lorne Akins, a charter member of the St. Albert club was presented with a handsome plaque for 20 years of fine service and almost perfect attendance. President Ken Moore made the presentation to Mr. Akins and his wife, who received a standing ovation from the crowd.

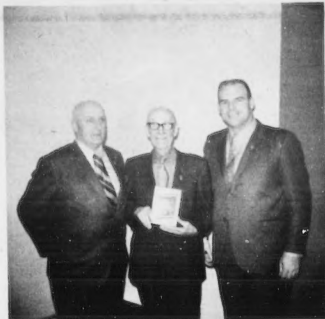

Dr. Cuts made the first Lion in Alberta, and the 197th in the history of Lions International, (with one million members), to receive the Key of State, one of the highest awards in Lionsism. In making the presentation, District Governor Angus Murray commended him for meritorious service in building and developing Lionsism at all levels. Dr. Cuts has also sponsored 75 members, all of whom have remained with the club for at least more than one year. Mr. Murray urged this hard working Lion to carry on his fine work. The award carried with it a plaque and wallet card and the crowd

Toastmaster Bill Webber kept things moving through the dinner and program and started a round of jokes with his reading of amusing but phony telegrams from Canadians in high places. Ken Moore recognized special guests, and John Huberdeau, zone chairman, introduced visiting clubs, eight in all. Address of welcome was given by John Kaminski, president of the Breakfast Club, who also introduced guests from the Senior Citizens club, Mr. and Mrs. Pudowski and Mr. and Mrs. Ethier, noting that the Breakfast club endeavours to help the senior citizens socialize in the community.

Bringing greetings from the town, Mayor Gibson commended the Lions for their community service projects, but asked that in the next bike-a-thon they "put a motor on mine."

Rod Thronson did little research for his toast to the ladies, coming up with the interesting observation that

Council will review administration

At the organizational meeting of town council last week, Mayor Gibson requested that he and secretary-treasurer Dan O'Connell be given authority to review the administration situation and bring in recommendations in two or three weeks. Coun. de Bruijn felt the review would include organizational chart, and the mayor replied the chart would be re-circulated. Coun. de Bruijn felt a new chart should be drawn up, to which the mayor agreed. Authority was granted.

Hallowe'en will be declared for Saturday, Oct. 30 in St. Albert, de Bruijn was told in reply to his question. de Bruijn also said that the recreation director in MD Sturgeon had contacted him to see if council would be interested in meeting with him, so that he might explain the concept of the regional recreation board. Coun. de Bruijn's motion moved that Mr. Carl Royan be invited to appear before committee at his earliest convenience.

Large delegation forces board meeting to SAM

A delegation of about 40 Paul Kane students and several of their parents met with St. Albert Protestant school trustees, Wednesday, October 20. The district office could not hold the large delegation and the meeting moved to the gym at SAM school.

The delegation's concern is a common one -- school busing. Spokesmen for the group were two Paul Kane High students, Debbie Wahl and Jill Leggett. Miss Leggett, of Glenmore Crescent, told the Gazette after the meeting that her backyard is on the 1 1/2 mile boundary; she walks to school while her neighbors are bused.

Several members of the audience voiced their disapproval of the 1 1/2 mile rule, but were told by trustees that a change in this can only be made by the provincial government.

In answer to Miss Wahl's statement that school buses are going to Paul Kane "half empty," while many Grandin Park students are forced to walk to the school, trustee Bill Penrose explained "it is not legal for us to give you a ride, even on a half empty bus, when you live within 1 1/2 miles of the school."

Mr. Penrose said perhaps the school district should have another referendum on the matter, but cautioned that such a vote could cost the district up to $5,000.

The district asked its electors in 1968 if they wished to foot the bill for busing students who lived within the boundary, and 291 voted against, with 269 electors approving of such a move.

One member of the audience felt such a referendum is a "laughable matter."

"Those who live less than 1 1/2 miles from the school, and who would be the only ones to benefit by this, are lost before they go to the polls. People living more than 1 1/2 miles away have it made; they get transportation and are not about to start paying higher taxes so that all may ride the school buses," he said.

Trustee Jim Wiltshire told the meeting that the board has already drafted a resolution to be presented to the ASTA convention next month, asking the minister of education to review the school busing situation and the transportation grant system.

Mr. Wiltshire noted that CONTINUED ON PAGE TWO

One of the most co-operative and the most effective community and school building sharing projects in the entire area was opened at Riviere Qui Barre last Friday evening.

MLA Ernie Jamison cut the ribbon on a new addition to Camilla school which was built under the auspices of the recreation society on to the gymnasium. The concrete block add-on, which will provide kitchen and washroom facilities, has cost the community $9,000 to date and no interior work has been done. It measures 20 ft. x 54 ft. and Mr. McDonnell reports that to complete and furnish the interior will require in the neighborhood of 8 - 10 thousand more.

In congratulating the people of the district, Ernie said it pleased him greatly to see a revitalized community spirit growing in rural areas throughout the constituency. This he felt meant a great deal in "happy and healthy living for the young and old and in-between."

President Angus McDonnell of the recreation society called on Mr. Mike Fitzgerald, first member of the old Recreation Club, who told the background story of

Citadel-on-Wheels performs for local students

The Citadel-on-Wheels rolled into St. Albert Tuesday, when the company appeared in four performances for students of Robert Rundle and George Simpson schools.

The younger children enjoyed "Shaman," the delightful story of a friendly medicine man. Older students attended performances of Death in the Tree, in the afternoon.

Both plays were written by Canadian dramatist Isabelle Ford. Members of the Citadel-on-Wheels company include Irene Watts, director; Eugene Tishauer, stage manager and actors Karen Austin, Susan Wright, Jackson Davies and David McCullay.

For the morning performances of "Shaman," children sat on the floor and formed a "magic circle" around the actors. They were Shaman's messengers and helped him ward off the evil medicine man who was out to get Shaman and threatened to turn them all into "naked news." The children banded together with Musko and Arctic Owl and were transformed into a herd of furry creatures, fierce, brave and strong.

The play had a happy ending when the evil medicine man turned into a friendly seal and the youngsters contentedly left their magic circle to return to their classrooms. General consensus was that the production was "real neat, man!"

Air Cadets Seek More Instructors

Instructors in a number of areas are needed to assist in the Air Cadet training program. The St. Albert Squadron has a very fine record, and anyone who can assist in teaching would be contributing in a most valuable way to a movement which is developing resourceful and self-disciplined young people with a responsibility for good citizenship.

Volunteer instructors are needed for: Pilot ground school subjects; Drill instructors; Citizenship courses; Athletic coaching; Drum and Bugle band work, and assistant instructors in these fields.

Interested people are asked to write to Captain L. D. Gault, Commanding Officer, #533 Squadron, Royal Canadian Air Cadets, P. O. Box 129, St. Albert, or telephone him at 425-2781 days or 599-7877 evenings.

the project, which all began when the school children wanted a piano. They staged a few small events and wanted to put on a dance, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Savore came to their aid, sponsoring a sock hop and drive which netted $900 in $10 donations in 1945. The community got more involved and the fund grew to $1,500.

Three years ago all clubs and individuals interested in recreation decided to join forces and the recreation society was formed, with its first major objective to provide some form of hall facility.

They went to the Sturgeon school board, "who were at first very reluctant, but later worked towards the present very fine agreement," Mr. Fitzgerald said. Angus called on his "little twin" brother John McDonald of the Sturgeon school board, who described the project as "a real credit to the initiative of the people of Riviere Qui Barre." "This is the first venture in community use of school facilities in the school division," he said, and congratulated the community for the exceptional effort they put in.

Reeve Lawrence Kluthe also had praise for the persistence of the Qui Barre people in their efforts to improve recreation facilities and program recreation, he quoted, should be relaxing, entertaining, sometimes stimulating. He reminded the society that the services of the recently-hired recreation director for the MD, Mr. Carl Royan, were available.

The large crowd on hand for the cabaret evening—first function under the new arrangements, were invited to have a look at the new addition "to see what we have, and what we still need," said Mr. McDonald.

The crowd of just under 400 people had a fine time and no doubt future dances and social events will help to swell the recreation society's bank account and complete the new addition.

It will serve the school from 6 a.m. - 6 p.m. and the community from 6 p.m. - 6 a.m. to the mutual benefit of both.

Members on the board of directors of the society, which represent the four corners of the district are: Hector Soetaert, Betty Kaup Jack Kinsella, Gordon Fuhr, Joyce Stevens, who also serves as secretary, and Angus McDonald.

the grants received by school districts are based on the 1967 cost per student, "and," he added, "our costs in St. Albert protestant district have increased considerably." Mr. Wiltshire said the district last year lost $6,000 on student transportation and he expects that "this year it will cost us an extra $4,000 over that."

Mr. Penrose said perhaps a "town bus service" might be a solution. "Such a bus service would provide local transportation to all residents, including students," he added. He suggested the delegation speak with town council on this matter.

Trustee Charles Schroder suggested the delegation

Secretary-treasurer George Hargreaves will be available to this committee to assist with setting up meetings, but, as one trustee pointed out, "the board's hands are tied."

as representatives of the St. Albert Recreation Board, de Brujin felt it was "up to council to interview Mr. Royan prior to soliciting the advice of our own board." Vote on the amendment was 5 - 1, de Brujin opposed. Motion as amended carried.

Coun. de Brujin reported that he had talked to Mr. Fyfe and that the PSS committee would like to meet with council as soon as reports being prepared were completed. At the next committee meeting council will review PSS minutes available and a letter making certain recommendations which had been received from one of the committee members.

In reply to a question by Coun. Thordson, the mayor reminded council that all of them could sit in on any committee meeting at any time, and also that council had the authority to make committee changes at any time.

Coun. Bakker felt that council should be represented on the library board, since they are ultimately responsible for the budget, and he agreed to serve in this capacity. Other members of the library board are: Richard Green, Ann Hapchyn, Rosemary Mielche; Jack Williams, Ardis Kamra, Frank Dolphin and Peter Wood.

Mayor Gibbon reminded council of the AUMA convention in the MacDonalds Hotel Oct. 26 - 29 and also advised council that as an executive member of that body he would be meeting with the Hon. Dave Russell on Thursday, along with mayors of the 10 cities and other representatives of the AUMA and AAMD, on the matter of the $50 million aid to winterworks program announced by the federal government, and how Alberta might be affected.

Comets take Ray's by 2-goal margin

St. Albert Comets senior hockey team started off the season on the right note, scoring a 5-3 win over Ray's Esso, at the St. Albert and District Arena Friday night. The Comets apologize to their many fans for advertising the game for Saturday night. It seems communications with the Gazette went amiss.

Comets took an early 1-0 lead at the 4:25 mark of the first period when newcomer Claude Contant scored with assists from his brother Jake and Ron Kalata. Veteran winger Ray Lamer scored unassisted two minutes later to give the Comets a two-goal lead which they held entering the second period.

Speedy centreman Terry Dube took a long pass from Mickey Fraser and let a booming slapshot go from just outside the blueline and the Comets were out in front 3-0. Less than a minute later, Dube took a hooking penalty and Danny Fleming tipped in a shot from the point to put Ray's Esso on the scoreboard.

Comets ran into another penalty at the 10:25 mark and less than a minute later their lead was reduced to one goal when Pete Golko scored on a goal-mouth scramble. Big Al Laplante gave the Comets a two goal lead again when he slammed in a pass from Claude Contant at the 15:20 mark of the second period.

Both clubs scored once in the last period, with Fleming getting his second for Ray's, and Rick Pugliese Comets marksman, with assists going to Dube and Lamer. The Lamer-Dube-Pugliese line showed quite well for the Comets and coach Ken Schwartz felt his club had a reasonable performance with the exception of the second period.

A total of 19 penalties were called including fighting majors to O'Neil Chevalier of the Comets and Fleming from Ray's. Comets netminding was equally divided between newcomers John Dewas and Morley Moger.

Comets next home exhibition game will be played this Friday at 8 p.m. against the Westlock Chevies, Westlock, in the northern section of the Central Alberta Hockey League, have long been arch rivals of the Comets, since they played in the old Sturgeon Valley Hockey League. Comets will travel to Westlock on Sunday at 8 p.m. for a return match.

Mens hockey gets underway

The opening game of the six team St. Albert Mens' commercial hockey league was played Monday night with Father Jake Joly scoring the first goal in the brand new league.

St. Albert Esso Extras picked up the first two points of the season scoring three goals in the third period to defeat Grandin Gulf Service 5-4.

The Esso Extras are mostly teachers and are jointly sponsored by Rogers and Grandin Esso service stations.

Jake Joly's goal gave Gulf a 1-0 lead shortly after the second period started. Before the period ended Gulf added three more with D. Chugg scoring two and J. Laplante the other. Ernie Palichuk and J. Seguin scored for Esso to reduce Gulf's lead to 4-2.

The third period was all Esso's as R. Wright scored a pair before Dennis Limoges scored the winner.

Referees Don Fender and Al Alain handed out seven minor penalties.

The league's next game will be played October 28 when Atlas goes against National Life, and on November 1st Atlas will play Calgary Power.

All games are played in the St. Albert and District Arena at 10:30 p.m.

Bernice and Roberta Parsons won the ladies B doubles, and Roberta and Gordon Manners were finalists in the B mixed doubles, with Bernice and Karl Schneider placing third. Clark Warren and Don Hermanson were finalists in the mens B doubles, losing out in a very close game. Gordon and Karl placed third in mens double

Letters to the Editor

Open letter to council

The Editor:

In other circumstances this open letter would not have been written; however, improved communications with the public was a plank in most of your platforms, and I trust you will honor this intention and provide communication on the following matter.

At your meeting on Oct. 18, you approved three appointments to the Preventive Social Services Committee out of a list of four applicants. I was the applicant not appointed, although I cited considerable and varied relevant experience in this field over recent years, viz. work with the Family Service Association and the Glenrose Hospital Social Services Department, along with my present work at the Edmonton General Hospital.

The only reason given in a letter which I received two days after I saw the appointments in the Gazette was that "... unfortunately there were more applications received than there were vacancies." Is the only criterion, then, for a position requiring experience and tact that one's letter must be received before applications exceed the number of vacancies? If so, I am even more puzzled, because my application was mailed before the election, thus being the only one received until almost the deadline for applications.

It is possible that ALL THREE of the applicants appointed are better qualified for a committee such as the Preventive Social Services, and I will readily accept this if Mayor Gibbon will assure St. Albert residents of the wisdom of your selection by publishing the factors which led to the choice.

Appointments to at least one other public body have in the recent past been open to question. I feel it is only fair to ask for this justification of one of the initial actions of our newly elected council.

Teresa Ann Parsons (Mrs)
10 Sorrel Crescent

EDITOR'S NOTE:

The Gazette reporter advises that each application was voted on individually by the entire council and in each case the margin was decisive.

Election Fault

The Editor:

The recent municipal elections brought to light a gross fault in the existing School Election Act. It seems that ONLY Canadian citizens or British subjects are permitted to vote for school board candidates. This restriction seems to be irrespective of residency or home ownership. As this is a blatant case of "taxation without representation" I have requested that the minister of education give his immediate attention to it, with the view to changing the law as soon as is possible.

Trusting that three years from now we will have a vote in the selection of people who operate the school systems for our children, we are

Casa Dianne offers quality hairstyling

Dianne Nichol is the manageress of a dynamic new hairstyling salon and boutique in St. Albert. Casa Dianne opened its doors in the new St. Albert Upholstery Building, at 11 Perron Street.

Dianne and her family are not new to St. Albert; they have been residents of the town for eight years and are enjoying every minute of it. There are three children in the Nichol family and Dianne's husband, Ken, is a consulting engineer with a firm in Edmonton. They live at 16 Sturgeon Road.

Dianne saw the need for a professional approach to quality hair styling and service in St. Albert and established Casa Dianne.

Hairstylists Brenda Boorse and Georgina Gladeau are sensitive to their customers' wishes and take pride in helping "La Contessa" look her best.

DIANNE NICHOL

members wishes and take pride in helping "La Contessa" look her best.

Dianne and her staff invite ladies of St. Albert and district to visit Casa Dianne soon and enjoy their warm hospitality and pleasant surroundings. Casa Dianne is decorated in old world Spanish decor; rich reds and mellow woods lend an air of elegance to the salon.

The boutique at Casa Dianne features many handmade items and lovely crocheted work, as well as scarves and artifacts from Mexico. Hair accessories and beauty products are featured and Casa Dianne carries a fine line of quality wigs and hair pieces. This weekend all services and boutique items are discounted 10 per cent.

B and L to carry appliances

"Actually, we haven't got our store in ship-shape yet," commented Wayne Law of B and L Plumbing. His firm has moved into the new St. Albert Upholstery Building, 11 Perron Street, and the store was the scene of much activity as staff members unpacked and moved-in a complete line of quality fixtures.

Mr. Law founded B and L Plumbing one year ago; he has been in the business more than 10 years. His staff of four are fully experienced in all phases of the trade and B and L Plumbing offer 24-hour service. Their number is 599-4441.

B and L Plumbing offers a complete remodelling service, do expert new construction and give quick, efficient attention to "trouble calls."

Mr. Law is planning to open a Bath Boutique on the premises in about a month's time and merchandise on order for this includes custom towels, fancy soap dishes and other items to lend a touch of glamor to the littlest room in the house.

Mr. Law will also be carrying Inglis appliances; he plans to stock washers and dryers and may expand to include other lines.

B and L Plumbing features a parts department for the do-it-yourself-plumber and the staff will be happy to offer advice on home improvements.

John and Gerry Szott open new shop

John and Gerry Szott, who 11 years ago established St. Albert Upholstery, have relocated in a bright new, much larger shop, in the St. Albert Upholstery Building, 11 Perron Street.

The Szotts now carry a fine line of Century Craft furniture, in today's most popular styles. These attractive pieces are offered at substantial savings for the grand opening this week.

This week, a lovely two piece living room grouping, which regularly sells for $629, has been reduced by two-hundred dollars; there are many more groupings offered at equally substantial savings.

John and Gerry Szott are both fully qualified tradesmen. John has been in the upholstery business for almost 20 years, and both he and his wife Gerry learned their trade in a major manufacturing plant.

St. Albert Upholstery will repair, upholster or rebuild any piece of furniture. They will also custom build to the customer's own specifications. Work is done quickly and efficiently; the staff of six are all fully qualified and have many years experience.

A good selection of rugs and drapes are also featured at St. Albert Upholstery and the firm does excellent repair work on car seats. The staff will be happy to come to the customer's home with samples and there is never a charge for estimates.

The shop carries a vast line of samples in colors to compliment all tastes. "And if we don't have a certain item, we'll get it," says John Szott.

St. Albert Upholstery will take any old piece of furniture and make it look like new again. "If it is a good set," says Mrs. Szott, "it is usually much more advantageous to have it re-built and reupholstered. You would never be able to replace it with furniture of equal quality for the cost of repairing." St. Albert Upholstery is open from 8 - 5 weekdays and 9 - 1 Saturdays. The phone number is 599-6313.

AROUND TOWN

Andy Kampen, who has been doing some remodelling at the St. Albert arena got a pleasant surprise yesterday afternoon when a fellow showed up and proceeded to do a first class plastering job on the entrance. Andy had not sent for any plasterer, so figured the man's services were a donation to the arena. It wasn't till the work was done that the chap found out he plastered the wrong building... his work order was for the new St. Albert Upholstery Building, across the street.

Now that Mr. Rod Thronson has been elected to town council, St. Albert people might like to know that the correct pronunciation of his name has the letters h and d silent. So when you telephone in your complaints, it's councillor "Tronson." This column reported once before on the common mispronunciation of the mayor's name, but it seems a reminder that there is no s on Ray's surname would be in order - Mayor Gibbon is correct.

Donna Read of Burnham Place is taking advantage of a marvelous opportunity to visit Russia. A friend who won an Air Canada ticket was unable to use it, and offered Donna the chance. She will leave St. Albert Saturday and spend two days in Montreal before taking off for Moscow next Tuesday. Donna, who majored in history at the U of A has previously visited Leningrad, but this will be her first trip to Moscow and she is looking forward to visiting the eight or more museums in the Kremlin. She will also ride on Moscow's famous subway and see as much of the city as she can during her one-week stay.

4-way discussions most useful - Mayor

The opportunity for serious but informal discussion between members of the four bodies involved and provincial government observer, was one of the greatest things to come out of the Educational Conference held in Red Deer Oct. 16 - 19, Mayor Gibbon said Monday.

Attending the conference were executive members of the Alberta Urban Municipalities Association, the Alberta Association of Municipal Districts and Counties, the Alberta School Trustees Association and the Alberta Hospital Association.

Bill Penrose who is on the executive of the ASTA also attended from St. Albert.

The informal meetings which Mayor Gibbon felt were most useful were held Friday night and Saturday morning, when discussions ranged over resolutions before the provincial government, related problems of the four associations, and ways in which they could co-operate and work together more effectively.

A resolution moved by Mayor Gibbon that the Urban and MD and Counties associations form a joint, "Quick Action" committee, which would have authority to act in an emergency, was adopted. It will now go before the memberships of the two bodies at their upcoming conventions. Such a committee would be in position to take action in a situation such as arose last spring, when the associations wished to immediately make known their opposition to the provincial government's Bill 28.

MLA Rusty Zander of the provincial task force on Provincial-Municipal Financing attended the conference and was also invited to sit in on the informal after hour meetings.

The education meetings were held Thursday and Friday. Among topics covered were: length of the school day, merits of semesters, trimesters and quarters, and how to implement greater use of school buildings.

Dennis Paterson of St. Albert and Pat Paterson of Grande Prairie have a lot of moose to show for their recent hunting expedition into the Peace River area. The animal has a spread of 47 1/2 inches and its weight was estimated at 1,450 pounds. Dennis plans to mount the horns.

Thank You

To the electors of School District #3, thank you for your support on October 13th. Your vote of confidence has inspired me to try to be a better trustee.

This Sunday afternoon, from 2 to 5, the Youville Auxiliary will be holding their annual tea and bazaar in the auditorium of the Home. This event has become a very popular occasion with residents of St. Albert and district and offers a chance to get an early start on Christmas shopping as a variety of locally homemade items will be featured.

St. Albert has responded well to Spook Insurance, the Movers answer to a painless halloween. The youngsters wish to remind policy holders that claims should be made between 1 - 5 p.m. on the Sunday following halloween. Just contact your spooky agent at 599-5217 or 599-7669. The Movers say "thanks" to everyone who supported them.

Kelvin Swane and Pete Chapman left on October 23 for London and a ski holiday in Austria. They plan to be abroad for two months. Kelvin is a former St. Albert resident.

St. Albert UCW are presenting their annual tea and bazaar, Saturday, Nov. 6, in the St. Albert community hall from 11 a.m. - 3 p.m. A hot luncheon will also be served. There will be sale of homebaking, mince meat and many useful and novelty gift items. Next to new clothing for adults and children will be a popular feature.

One of St. Albert's nicest beards succumbed to the razor last week... The board room of the protestant school district just wasn't the same without it.

Parents are reminded that Saturday has been officially proclaimed Halloween in St. Albert. Before sending the wee ghosts and goblins out on their rounds, please make sure that masks and costumes do not hamper their vision. And motorists are asked to be on the look-out for our small citizens, many of whom, because of the excitement of the evening, probably won't be as careful crossing streets as they should be.

Mustang Atoms score double win

The Mustangs, coached by Louie Stanley and Dennis Gibson, defeated the Rangers 4 - 1 last weekend to capture the Hercules Soccer Atom Challenge Cup. These are the younger Atoms in the seven and eight year age group, and are the youngest boys playing organized soccer.

Norman Odlinga led the way with three goals, with Jamie Sander scoring the other. The Mustangs also went through their league schedule undefeated in nine straight games to win the Hopkins Trophy which was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hopkins, to Captain Andrew Howell, following the game.

ST. ALBERT RECREATION HI - LITES

Judging by the number of enquiries there seems to be a growing interest in this activity which is basically a come-as-you-please, drop-in affair - no membership fees, no commitment. On Tuesday evenings, both gymnasiums in St. George Simpson Junior High are available from 7:30 - 10 p.m.; one for badminton (bring your own racket) and the other for basketball, volleyball or even more badminton. Parents can bring their older children and perhaps teach them the rudiments of badminton. There is no age limit apart from one ground rule that appears advisable: young people under the age of 15 must be accompanied by a parent.

Anyone can come and play badminton, shoot baskets or play a game of volleyball with whoever happens to be there. However, don't leave it till too late in the evening. If no one is there at 9 p.m. the gymnasium will be closed.

On Thursdays, the sports club will continue to meet in Father Jan School from 8 - 10 p.m. - the name of the game then is volleyball and once again there are no club fees and everyone is welcome.

DRAMA:

As announced in last week's Gazette the St. Albert-on-Sturgeon Players are coming to life again. Original members and anyone interested are invited to a coffee party to be held in the Library meeting room on Sunday, October 31 at 2 p.m.

This will be an opportunity for people interested in theatre to meet, get to know one another, and exchange ideas. It is not going to be a formal meeting, but should help to decide "where we go from here."

BASKETBALL:

There was a good turnout for the boys' and girls' basketball (12 and over) sponsored by the Hercules Sports Association. Note that there has been a change in the schedule. The boys practise in Vital Grandin school on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 7 - 9 p.m. and the girls now practise in Leo Nickerson school on

From the Firehall

St. Albert Fire Chief Fred Tetarenko reports his department was called out to a number of grass and stubble fires during the last couple of weeks.

Firemen were called to Cozy Acres farm last week, where fire destroyed the loft of a barn. The culprits here were youngsters playing with matches. Mr. Tetarenko said kids playing in old, vacant buildings is bad news. "One of these days a youngster is going to get trapped and we'll have a tragedy on our hands," Mr. Tetarenko asks the co-operation of all parents to point out the dangers in this to their children.

Firemen are presently conducting home inspections and the men are still finding gasoline being stored in basements. "It doesn't take much for an explosion to occur," says the fire chief, and he cautions all residents who must store their gas lawnmowers in the basement to make sure the tanks are completely dry.

The men have been well received on their inspection tours and appreciate the co-operation from the residents of the town, Mr. Tetarenko said.

Tuesdays only from 7 - 9 p.m.

The annual Hercules membership fee covers all activities sponsored by the association and anyone with a membership can participate in the basketball, soccer and softball program. An individual membership costs $3 and a family membership, $5.

Protestant school board organizes

At their October 20 meeting, the first after the recent elections, St. Albert protestant separate school trustees elected Jim Wilshire chairman of the board. Bill Penrose will again serve as vice-chairman. Present for the meeting, and sworn into office, were incumbent trustees Dr. William Cuts, Charles Schroder, Jim Wilshire and Bill Penrose; and newcomer to the board, Don Munro.

Trustees were told that the parents from Mission Park, who recently appeared before the board requesting school bus transportation for their children who are presently walking to SAM school, are discussing the matter with Western Bus Lines and it is hoped the group can make private arrangements. Under present legislation these students do not qualify for the transportation grant.

The interim report on school fees, prepared by superintendent Elmer Gish, was tabled to the next meeting of the board.

Trustees agreed to meet with Thomas Ditzel, executive director M.E.T.A., to hear his proposals for educational television in the district's schools.

Dr. Wm. Cuts expressed his concern over the slow progress on the new high school. "The snow will be flying soon and tenders are still not called," he said. The building committee is to get in touch with the architect and request a report on the matter.

The monthly enrolment report shows 2,594 students attending classes in the district, as of September 30, 1971.

Trustees received a letter from Dr. L. D. Nobert, dental health officer, Sturgeon Health Unit. Dr. Nobert expressed his concern with the number of schools which have sugar-sweetened pop and candy vending machines. In his letter, Dr. Nobert said many parents who restrict sugars at home are disappointed because these products are readily obtained at school. Trustees were advised that Simpson school has a pop machine, maintained by the students' union. SAM school has a milk machine. The matter will be discussed with the students advisory committee, and trustees in general concurred with Dr. Nobert's concern.

The slage at SAM school will for the next few weeks be the scene of bloody action. Under the joint use agreement, trustees voted to allow Stampede Wrestling to set up shop on the stage for weekly practice sessions. Principal Rod Thordson told trustees that this would not interfere with the school's program, for the specified length of time. Several trustees showed concern. "Some of these wrestlers weigh 350 pounds, will the stage take that?" they asked. "I don't know," said Mr. Thordson, "but I sure hope they clean up the blood afterwards."

Newcomers

We welcome the following to St. Albert:

Mr. and Mrs. G. Ferry, and family; Mr. and Mrs. D. Seyler and family; Mr. and Mrs. D. Parkinson and family of Lacomb Park. Mr. and Mrs. L. Erickson of Mission Park.

Parents and teachers attend learning disability program

Why can't Billy learn? The parents and teachers who attended the learning disability program at Leo Nickerson School on October 20 would probably answer "He may have a learning disability."

This well attended meeting of the Leo Nickerson PTA stirred up a great deal of interest in the problems of children with learning disabilities. The excellent program included a film, entitled "Why Billy can't learn" and several speakers: Mrs. Betty Finch, a reading consultant with the Edmonton Public School Board; Mrs. Isobel Reid, a parent with a son with a learning disability and Mr. Bob Reid, past-president of the Edmonton Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

The film "Why Billy Can't Learn" showed Billy and a number of other children of school age with learning problems and some of the steps taken to assist them. Some of the problems illustrated were:

1. The terrible frustrations of a child with learning difficulties who "had to be perfect."
2. A child who had a difficult time remembering what to most of us were "Simple directions."

3. The child who was "constantly in motion."

4. The child with neurological problems who "could not learn to read."

The film gave an excellent presentation of the wide range of differences of those with learning disabilities, and some steps taken to help them, in a California public school system.

Mrs. Finch gave further background on children with these difficulties. She mentioned that the children were concerned about were of average or above average intelligence who fail to keep up with other children and fall further and further behind in school. She said that we must locate the right weakness (or weaknesses) and train the weakness. She pointed out that some of these difficulties lead to emotional problems.

One example is a child with a poor auditory memory (who can't remember things he hears). He is punished for "not obeying." This punishment makes him more anxious and the anxiety makes it even more difficult to concentrate on what he hears. A vicious circle develops.

She mentioned that learning disabilities are tied in with growth and development. Children who progress more slowly than most in talking, walking, and play requiring fine coordination, may have a potential learning problem. She pointed out that many of the learning disabled children have difficulty processing information taken in with the eyes or ears (or both). Getting directions fouled up, not seeing small differences as different, such as letters and words, and difficulty copying from the blackboard are the results of some of these difficulties.

Mrs. Isobel Reid told about her son Bobby who is now 14 years old. He was a bright little boy who was able to express mature ideas at an early age. However, when he went to kindergarten he experienced his first failure - orange juice. He was hyperactive and could not keep still during rest period and did not "earn" his orange juice by being quiet. He was taught reading by a visual method during his first two years and made very little progress. He was sent to a private school and responded better to a phonetic approach.

As I See It

By Ross Martin

As a nation, Canada is a beautiful and bountiful land. Our heritage is a proud heritage and Canada is known throughout the world as a generous nation where peoples from different lands have found a home.

Our people enjoy a high standard of living, good schools and adequate medical care in most rural as well as urban centres. Canadians are enjoying a good life compared to two thirds of the people on the other side of the world.

Yet the basic values of life, that have made Canada the land of opportunity, vanished, forgotten or disappeared.

I attended a graduation program last weekend, where leaders of the community, both civic and church, as well as the director of a college in Alberta were guest speakers, along with a school principal and school board members.

Not once was Canada, our nation, mentioned, nor was the National Anthem sung. The absence of a Canadian flag in the auditorium was not an oversight, but a habit!

As I see it . . . far too much emphasis is put on material decorations, programs, and grand formal gowns for such an occasion; and no advantage is taken of the opportunity to tell our young graduates scholars to be proud of to be a Canadian. If we as parents, educators, and civic leaders permit the omission of our National Anthem at important functions, without protest, especially when our own children, some of whom are orphans of veterans, who gave their lives for this country, are participants, then . . . our national heritage and freedom are indeed in danger.

No better action can be suggested for Canadian parents than to take a far more active role in school and civic affairs in their own community, and give the example that, as Canadians, we intend to "keep the north strong and free."

Parents & Teachers Program

From there he went to an adaptation room and his happiest day was when he fitted back into a regular classroom. Even today he has trouble with spelling and writing. He can still express his ideas orally, and does well on non-written work. Mrs. Reid emphasized that Bobby's most difficult task was not his learning problems, which were difficult enough, but keeping intact emotionally. He knew he was bright but could not prove it.

Mr. Bob Reid told about the work of the Association for Children with Learning Disabilities. He stated that the association is not to provide a solution but to educate the public. The difficulties are not only educational but are community problems as well. He emphasized that those who do not learn are potential liabilities to the community. Because seven out of eight are boys, and these are potential bread winners, the problem is quite severe. Mr. Reid told of the forthcoming conference to be held in Edmonton on the second, third and fourth of December. The CELDIC (Commission on Emotional and Learning Disabilities in Children) Report on special educational needs in Canada will receive a good deal of emphasis during that conference.

At the conclusion of the meeting, a special meeting of all those interested in learning disabilities in the Sturgeon and St. Albert areas was planned. The meeting will be held November 9 at 8 p.m. at Leo Nickerson School. The program is yet to be decided.

Clarence Fawcett dies at 74

By Rose Martel

On October 22 Thomas Clarence Fawcett, a long time resident of the district, died suddenly. He was 74 years of age.

Mr. Fawcett came to the district at the age of nine years, with his family who settled on a farm. The late Mr. Fawcett attended school in the district and continued to farm. He married the former Miss Ida Labrie of Cardiff in 1926, and the couple lived on the same farm for the past 45 years.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in Edmonton, with Rev. Norman McDonald officiating, and interment followed in the Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Mr. Fawcett is survived by his widow, Ida; five sons: Milton, of St. Albert; Vernon, of Elk Water, Alberta; Norman and Dwayne of Morinville and Russell of Lac La Biche; one daughter, Mrs. Cameron (Marjorie) Fulton of Alameda; 13 grandchildren; three brothers and two sisters.

St. Albert High

By Karen Donalds

ELECTION RESULTS:

An all girls student's executive was elected Friday, October 15. The new Students' Union consists of: Carol McDonnell, president; Carol McRae, vice-president; Lea Shiemi, secretary; Lynda Rousseau, treasurer; Lorraine Roy, social director; Janet McGinnis, sports director; Karen Donalds, publicity director; Susan Hoffart, grade 12 rep; Nancy Rublak, grade 11 rep; Colleen Sheehan, grade 10 rep; Connie Viverous, grade 9 rep.

The new Students' Union held their first dance of the term at the community hall, Martha Strange played from 8:30 until 12. The dance was opened to Paul Kane and St. Albert High students and their guests.

NORTH CENTRAL ATHLETIC NEWS:

The basketball league will not be starting until after Christmas holidays and the actual schedule of the games will not be available until late November.

St. Albert High will be playing off with the following schools in both volleyball and basketball in order to advance to zone finals: Whitecourt, Mayerthorpe, Onaway and Stony Plain. The area volleyball playoff will be held on November 27 (location not decided) and the winner from this playoff will advance to the zone final on December 4.

SR. BOYS VOLLEYBALL:

Our boys played the Grad team last night, and will be playing Paul Kane and Legal at 5 and 6:30 tonight.

SR. HIGH VOLLEYBALL:

Both the boys and girls senior teams played Paul Kane High last Thursday, October 14, and defeated them best out of three games.

There was to be a game against Legal on Friday but it was cancelled.

ATTENTION TO ALL SCHOOL CLUBS:

All school clubs are requested by the Students Union to have their proposed budgets for the year turned into the S.U. office before October 30, 1971. No budgets will be taken after this date.

GOSSIP!

Guess who was seen sneaking into "Carnal Knowledge" . . . Mrs. Winkles!

We'll see what can be done about getting her as guest speaker at our next health class.

TRACK TEAM:

St. Albert High track team entered in the 10th CAPHER Cross Country races last Saturday, October 2.

Each of the races consisted of about 35 contestants ranging from junior and senior high students from the Edmonton area.

Sandy Willas placed third and Nancy Farmer, sixth in the 14 years and under. Susan Hoffart seventh in the Girls Senior Open. Louis Kerehlof 15th, Darrell Sheehan 19th and Chris Kluthe 22nd in the Boys 15 years. Jim Kehoe and Steve Hoffart placed 17th and 18th in the Boys 16 years.

The disgusted finger is pointed at Shella Dalphond this week for littering the school yard with her lunch bag. Naughty!!!

Paul Kane students are faced with a tough decision; which school ring they want. There are eight styles to choose from and the general indication is that the students prefer the rings without the school crest to rings with. For students that haven't already expressed their opinion, they can sign the footsac posted on the side of the trophy case where

Boards concerns

Student transportation was the first item to be considered when St. Albert public and separate school trustees met in joint session, Monday evening.

The meeting, held at the protestant district office, was attended by trustees Dave Fraser, Don LaBelle, Sylvia Walsh, Ernie Howrish, Al Gannon and superintendent Vince Maloney and secretary-treasurer Chris McDonnell of the Catholic schools.

Representing the protestant schools were trustees Jim Wiltshire, Bill Penrose, Don Munro and Charles Schroder. Also in attendance were superintendent Elmer Gish and secretary-treasurer George Hargreaves. Trustees of both boards agreed to present the following resolution to the annual ASTA convention, to be held next month in Calgary: Be it resolved that the Alberta School Trustees Association urge the minister of education to review Part B of the School Foundation Program Fund regulations with the object of correcting certain inequities.

In the background information to the emergent resolution it is pointed out that in an urban setting the 1-1-2 mile rule in regard to eligibility for bus grants means that the width of a street can be the ruling factor. In St. Albert there are ten-appe students riding on the school bus while six year olds from across the street have to walk.

Dave Fraser, chairman of the catholic school board, told the meeting his board will present this resolution to the convention of the Alberta Catholic School Trustees and the two districts will work together on a brief to be presented to Education Minister Lou Hyndman.

Trustees discussed a number of positive alternatives to the present grants system. Perhaps the most practical would be to ask the provincial government to calculate the grants to be received by the school districts and to give these grants with no strings attached.

Protestant school board chairman Jim Wiltshire pointed out that under such a system the district could operate more buses during the winter months when they are most needed, and perhaps cut out all busing for six months of the year. "I'm sure we could do more with the money, if it were a straight cash grant, than is now the case," he said.

Goings on at Paul Kane

the rings are on display.

GRAD COMMITTEE:

Any grade 12 students interested in being on the grad committee should contact Mrs. Hryniew.

VOLLEYBALL:

The boys volleyball team beat PK's "Finest" (teachers team that is) 15 - 7, 15 - 3, and 5 - 0 Friday at noon. Friday night they defeated the alumni team 16 - 14, 17 - 15 and 15 - 12.

The girls team won their first two games 15 - 13, 16 - 14 and lost 8 - 15.

Either the teams are getting better or the competition is getting worse!

CURLING:

Patricia Cann's team is in first place in the school curling league. Tied for second and place with two wins, one loss are Dave Upright, Ken Kuhn, Lane Bryant, Matt Lister, Norman Hill and the staff team. In third place is Brian Harvey, Janice Hoosier and Brad Hoosier.

One member of Paul Kane's staff is to be commended by teachers and students alike. Showing great courage without thought of personal safety (either mental or physical), coach Fred Reeler took the fatal plunge and attained an "A" license (that's a class 1 license). This means that the coach is over 18 years of age and can drive bus loads of students (none other than PK's teams and loyal fans!) around the countryside to games.

Singers perform at Youville Home

The St. Albert Singers culminated the first phase of this season's work when they presented a musical variety program for residents of the Youville Home, last Sunday afternoon.

The Singers, under the direction of Lillian Upright and accompanied by Carol Otto, sang Canadian folk songs, negro spirituals and selections from My Fair Lady.

Especially featured was the husband and wife team of Ron and Diane Nielsen, who charmed their listeners with several duets and solos.

The Singers will be rehearsing this Thursday at the usual time of 8:45 a.m. at the United Church lower hall. New singers who have been contemplating joining, now would be an excellent time. Work will begin soon on Christmas music and Mrs Upright plans to present part three of Handel's Messiah to St. Albert audiences.

The St. Albert Singers presented a musical program for residents of the Youville Home last Sunday afternoon. The Singers are directed by Lillian Upright and were accompanied by Carol Otto.

Wayne Sydowski weds Brenda Bambush

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sydowski.

A pretty wedding was solemnized in St. Albert Roman Catholic Church on Saturday, October 2, when Brenda Joann Bambush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Bambush of St. Albert, became the bride of Wayne K. Sydowski, son of the late Metro Sydowski and Mrs. M. Sydowski of Porcupine Plain, Saskatchewan.

Reverend J. Joly performed the wedding mass and ceremony before an altar decorated with mauve mums and mauve and white asters. Mrs. Bertha Kennedy played the organ.

Brenda, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length A-line, empire waisted gown of white bridal crepe. Delicate lace trimmed the tight fitting sleeves and the neckline. Her long train also featured lace trim. Her layered veil was held in place by a headpiece of white roses. The bride carried a cascade of orange roses and white stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Barbara Palmer, twin sister of the bride; Judy Nicolson, sister of the groom and Janet Suder were the bridal attendants.

They wore identical gowns of mauve crepe featuring empire waists. The gowns were trimmed with white and mauve lace. They carried bouquets of white carnations and purple lilacs.

The groom was attended by his brother, Larry Sydowski, Bruce Martin, and Ken Mensky. Guests were ushered by Denis Bambush and Darrell Kleser.

Mrs. Bambush chose a pink two piece suit with navy accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Mrs. Sydowski wore a blue dress with a matching blue dotted sleeveless coat. She wore a corsage of blue flowers.

Following the ceremony a banquet and dance was held at the Club Mocombo with Paul Salyn as master of ceremonies. Larry Sydowski proposed the toast to the bride.

Several congratulatory telegrams were received. Out of town guests included relatives and friends from Vancouver, Calgary, Peace River, Porcupine Plain and Saskatoon.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a sea green dress of fortrel, with brown accessories. She wore a corsage of orange roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Sydowski will reside in Edmonton.

Wing Com. J. G. Portlock, MBE, CD, RAF Retired, addresses Air Cadets, their parents and guests at the Open House program hosted recently by the St. Albert Squadron at St. Albert Community Hall. The event attracted a good turnout of local people interested in the Air Cadets, and the St. Albert Lions Club, civilian sponsoring body were well represented and assisted with the program, which included displays set up in the lower hall, to illustrate the many aspects of cadet training.

The marriage is announced of Nancy Louise, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hainsworth, 5 Spruce Crescent, St. Albert, to Darryl Arthur Goode of Chanin, Alberta. The wedding took place Saturday, October 23, in St. George's Anglican Church, Edmonton.

Kinettes to handle hampers again

The Kinette Club is once again handling the operation of the St. Albert Christmas Hamper Bureau.

Last Christmas the Hamper Bureau was successful in providing some 46 hampers to needy families in St. Albert, thus brightening the holiday season for a large number of needy adults and children.

The operation of the Christmas Hamper Bureau is in a large way dependent on the generosity and kindness of the merchants and citizens of St. Albert, without whose co-operation the operation of the Christmas Hamper Bureau would probably be impossible.

The Kinettes sincerely request the co-operation in providing a donation in cash or materials to assist them with this worthwhile cause. Watch the Gazette for further announcements.

Present for the occasion were the bridesmaid and best man of 25 years ago, Mrs. Frances Krauskopf (nee Dussault) and the groom's brother, Charles Krauskopf.
